THE EASTER HAM

Are you planning a roast ham for your Easter feast? You may find it economical to buy a larger roast than you need so you can freeze the unused portion for later use, says Gisela Pass, Extension Home Economist with the Hampden County Extension Service.

There are four main types of ham to choose from. The cook-before-eating, sometimes called uncooked, tenderized or regular ham requires thorough cooking before eating. The ready-to-eat ham is safe to eat, but the texture and flavor is enhanced by further cooking.

Abounding in flavor and palatability and completely ready to be served without further cooking are the fully cooked or cooked hams. Country-style hams that are more heavily cured, usually require soaking and parboiling before they are glazed and baked.

If you do buy extra, perhaps some of the following recipes will appeal to you.

Undercover Ham Casserole
2 c. cubed cooked ham
2 tbs. butter or margarine
1/4 c. chopped onion
10-1/2 oz. can cream of mushroom soup
1/2 c. milk
1/4 tsp. pepper
1/4 tsp. paprika
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 c. shredded cheddar cheese
2 c. hot mashed potatoes
Melt butter in a saucepan. Add onion and cook for about 5 minutes. Add ham. Blend in mushroom soup and milk. Stir in pepper, paprika, and Worcestershire sauce. Blend in cheese. Pour ham mixture into a 1-1/2 quart casserole which has been rubbed with butter. Spoon mashed potatoes over ham mixture. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., about 15 to 20 minutes or until potatoes are lightly browned. Serve hot.

Ham Kabobs
8-12 1" cubes cooked ham
1 lg. mushroom caps
1 can (8 oz.) pineapple chunks, drained
1 med. gr. pepper, cut in pieces
1 tsp. curry powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/8 tsp. ground cloves
1 tbs. minced onion
1/4 c. lemon juice or vinegar
1/2 c. salad oil
1 tbs. cornstarch
2 tbs. sugar
Put ham cubes, mushroom caps, pineapple chunks, and green pepper on 4 metal skewers. Place in shallow baking dish. Combine curry, salt, cloves, onion, lemon juice and salad oil and pour over kabobs. Let stand about 30 minutes. Bake in hot oven 425 degrees F., 20-25 minutes, basting frequently. Meanwhile combine cornstarch and sugar in saucepan. Then add the pineapple juice plus enough water to make 1 cup; cook and stir until thickened; add marinade drained from baked kabobs. Serve kabobs on hot cooked rice, top with sauce. Serves 4.

RESIDENTS OF AGAWAM - DEFEND YOURSELVES

BY FLORENCE MORENO

If you don't want to suffocate this summer from Longmeadow's burning garbage, you have a chance next Tuesday night to make your protest known at the hearing in Longmeadow Community House. It should be apparent by this time, that the power structure of Massachusetts is not losing any sleep on our behalf, and if we want this nuisance, this health menace, this violation of our air to stop, we must stand up and be counted. The fact that we are right, that we are justified in our demands, and that we echo the cry of the nation against air pollution, is not enough. The fact that the State Department of Public Health requested Longmeadow to stop burning last November is not enough. If it were, there would be no need for a hearing.

Neighbors — make no mistake about one thing. The petitions you signed, and the editorials in this paper are the only things that are forcing any action at all, at the state level. A show of strength is now necessary to convince the Bigs in Boston of the seriousness of our problem. Every man and woman who cares about the health and welfare of his family, to say nothing of the value of his property, should come to that hearing.

Your selectmen expect to be there, and representatives of various civic organizations.

The annual exhibit of the achievements of the students and their teachers in the Agawam Adult Evening School will be held Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31, in the auditorium and band room of the Agawam Junior High School. This exhibit is open to the public from 1 to 5 and 7 to 9 each day. Upholstery classes, supervised by Mr. Joseph Bianchi, will exhibit sofas, early American chairs, modern chairs, antique chairs, a love and a Lincoln rocker.

Rug hooking, under Mrs. Anna Swadba's direction, students have hooked and will exhibit Persian and Turkish orientals, crewel Jacobean, a fruit chair seat, a Chinese oriental, floral pattern rugs, a floral footstool, chair seats and tote bags.

Mr. Thomas Collins' classes in woodworking and furniture refinishing will display the following: a trestle table and benches, a harvest table, coffee table, hutch, cradle, blanket chest, chest of drawers, end tables and a cobbler's bench. These pieces in woodworking have been made from raw lumber. In furniture refinishing: a desk, a commode, a telephone bench, end tables, a chest of drawers, a bookcase and a bed, as well as a rocker and a spool chair.

In the clothing and dressmaking area of the exhibit, students under Mrs. Rita Cassanelli's direction will exhibit a wide variety of winter wool, silk and summer cotton garments for the entire family. On view will be party dresses for the little girl and cotton suits with cutaway jackets for the bigger girl. Raggedy Ann and Andy, the ever loved doll pair, will be seated together. Skirts, both straight and A-line, are matched with a blouse or shirt. There are summer and spring dresses in colorful swirls of paisley with matching coats. Winter and spring suits and capes will be seen in plaid, checked and solid colors.
